Playing rugby in England

(adapted from Headway, 5th edition, page 30-31)

Logan Cooper is 19 years old. He comes from Perth, Australia, but he now lives in Newcastle, in the north of England. He's a rugby player. He plays rugby for The Newcastle Rebels and he trains every day from Monday to Friday for the BIG game on Saturday. Sunday is his day off! He doesn't do much on Sundays. He shares a flat near the sports ground with Tony, another player from the team. Every summer he goes back to Australia for one month. One day he hopes to play rugby for his country.

"We train hard every weekday, usually at the sports ground, but sometimes we go running or cycling in the countryside. We cycle for miles, often to the sea. I really love the beaches near Newcastle, they're beautiful, but I don't go swimming there – I never swim – the North Sea is too cold. Tony goes swimming sometimes... but he's from Newcastle!

Saturday is the BIG day, Match Day! On Friday evening, Tony always cooks a big meal for us – white rice or potatoes, with chicken and green vegetables, but of course we don't drink any alcohol! I love the excitement on Saturday – especially when we win!

Sunday we're very tired. We just relax and watch TV. Oh, and I call my mum and dad in Australia. I miss them a lot!"

Bob's bad day

(adapted from BritishCouncil.org)

Bob had a terrible day yesterday. It was the day of his holiday to Spain but it was a nightmare! He left the house at nine o'clock in the morning and took a taxi to the airport. His flight was at half past eleven. When he went to the check-in with his luggage, he couldn't find his passport and became very upset. He forgot his passport at home and that was a disaster! He jumped back into a taxi and asked the driver to take him home. The driver drove fast and Bob arrived back at his house in only twenty minutes. He ran into his bedroom and found the passport on his bed. He left the house again but the taxi wasn't there! "I don't believe it, the taxi left!" he shouted. So, he ran down the street and looked for another taxi. After a few minutes he got one and told the driver to take him to the airport as quickly as possible. Unfortunately, the traffic on the road was very bad and Bob's taxi arrived at the airport late and Bob missed his flight. He bought a new ticket to Spain and he wasn't very happy about it.
