Studying in the UK

A student at King's School tells us what she likes about her English course.

My name's Carmen García and I'm a student at King's School, which is a language school in Glasgow.

I'm Spanish, from Madrid, but my mother is French. She's a teacher in Madrid.

The students at King's School are from many different countries. I'm in a class which has students from Japan, Mexico, Germany, and Italy. It's really interesting to meet so many different people. The director of the school is British, but my teacher is American. She's from New York and her name's Helen. She's very nice and she's an excellent teacher. Her classes are always great fun.

José and Karl are probably my best friends in the class. José is from Mexico and Karl is from Berlin, in Germany.

We always speak English together because that's the best way to learn.

READING ACTIVITY 2

Maria's diary

Saturday 18th July.

My friend Anna and I left home early in the morning, but our flight was delayed and we didn't arrive at Heathrow until late in the afternoon. We were really tired, but we took a bus to our hotel because taxis in London are very expensive.

When we got to the hotel, we had a rest and then went out to explore the city. We had a quick sandwich in a small café and then we had a walk in Oxford Street.

I bought a jacket and some T-shirts. I wanted to buy a bag as well, but I couldn't find one that I liked.

In the evening, we ate in an Italian restaurant. We went to a typical English pub in Covent Garden and we met some really nice English people: we had so much fun that we didn't get back to the hotel until very late!

Sunday 19th July.

We got up late and had breakfast in a café. I had a full English breakfast, and then I had some fruit. Anna just had toast. After breakfast, we went for a walk around the city. We saw Nelson's Column in Trafalgar Square, Buckingham Palace, and St Paul's Cathedral.

In the afternoon, we had a pizza and then took a bus to the train station. Travelling by bus in London is a great way to see the sights. We caught an evening train to Stratford-upon Avon and arrived at about nine o'clock. We went to our hotel and had an early night. We wanted to get up early the next day and explore Shakespeare's birthplace.
