This is a detailed topographic map of the Valle di Blenio region in the Canton of Ticino, Switzerland. The map is oriented with North at the top. It features a dense network of contour lines indicating elevation, with major peaks reaching over 2000 meters. The map is divided into several distinct valleys and mountain ridges. Key geographical features include the Valle di Blenio itself, the Valle di Leventina, and the Valle di Leventina. The map shows a complex network of hiking trails, with solid lines representing standard trails and dashed lines representing alpine trails. Numerous mountain peaks are labeled, including Pizzo Mottarone, Pizzo Taronio, and Pizzo Taronio. The map also shows the towns of Blenio, Leventina, and Leventina. The map is a black and white topographic map, typical of Swiss cartography. It includes a legend in the top left corner, a scale bar, and a north arrow.
